SECTION VI: ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE AND PRESCRIBED FEES

A request for access to records must be made in the prescribed Form C (a copy of which is attached) which should be sent to the address, fax number or electronic mail address.

Please note that an initial, non-refundable request fee of R57,00 (inclusive of VAT) is payable on submission. This fee is not applicable to personal requests, i.e. individual seeking access to records pertaining to those individuals themselves.

In the event that a request for access is successful an access fee will be payable for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of records and will be calculated based on the fee prescribed under the Act. The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record.

Request for information will be evaluated and the applicant will be notified within 30 days after receipt of the request in the prescribed format of the following:

Notification of extension period (if required)

Applicants must take note that in terms of the Act the 30 days period mentioned above may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days under certain circumstances (details will be provided together with the notification of such extension);

The access fee and/or deposit

The applicant will be informed of the access fee (if any) which is payable for having access to the records. In addition, a deposit may be requested which is fully refundable in the event that the application is ultimately refused.

Decision on request

The applicant will be informed whether or not the application for access has been denied, or granted. In the event that it is granted the information referred to above pertaining to the access fee, any deposit payable and any other relevant matters will be advised. In the event that the applicant is refused the applicant will be given adequate reasons for the refusal and will be informed that the applicant may lodge an application with a Court against the refusal of the application, as well as the procedure (including the period) for lodging such application.

Grounds for refusal

The Group may legitimately refuse to grant access to a requested record that falls within a certain category. Grounds on which the Group may refuse include:

- Protecting personal information that the Group hold about a third person (who is a natural person), including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
- Protecting commercial information that the Group holds about a third party or the Group (for example trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the Group or the third party);
- If disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- If disclosure of the record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the security of property or means of transport;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
- The record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the legal privilege has been waived;
- Disclosure of the record (containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information) would harm the commercial or financial interests of the Group;
- Disclosure of the record would put the Group at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- The record is a computer programme; and
- The record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party of the Group.

Records that cannot be found or do not exist

If the Group has searched for a record and it is believed that the record either does not exist or cannot be found, the requester will be notified by way of an affidavit or affirmation. This will include the steps that were taken to try to locate the record.

Third party information

If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, the Group is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request. This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.

In the event of the third party furnishing reasons for the support or denial of access, our designated contact person will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted, or not.
